Your chartered membership (CPsychol)

Dear Dr Paul Joseph Richard CPsychol

Congratulations on becoming a chartered member.

View the information that appears for you on the online list of Chartered Psychologists. You can update your details at any time via your profile. Alternatively, you can contact the membership department who will be happy to help.

As a member you will be able to register for our online communities, view our e-learning courses and access our collection of academic journals.

You'll also be able to manage your personal information via your online profile, speak to our membership team using our online chat function and opt-in to receive our emails. Our emails will keep you up to date with the latest news, trends and topics shaping the future of your profession.

Join a member network

Our member networks exist to help our members further their professional and scientific interests. Joining a network means you will be able to communicate and collaborate with other members, develop your professional knowledge and access training relevant to your career. With over 100 specialist networks for you to choose from, you might not know where to begin. That's why we've created the Find Your Member Network tool to help narrow down your options.

Join a register or directory

Our registers offer the opportunity for recognition and validation of a variety of expertise, skills and experience of our psychologists. Our directories enable members to advertise their services to members of the public and specialist organisations.
