Urban Universities as catalysts for Quality of Life: a Belfast perspective

Where?
2 Royal
Avenue

When?
Wednesday 21.09
14.30-17.00

This workshop, presented jointly by Your City Your Voice Belfast, Ulster University and UK-charity The Quality of Life Foundation, will examine the terms and definitions associated with quality of life and consultation.

We will discuss the role/responsibility of Ulster University (with it's new Belfast campus open from September 2022) to contribute to quality of life in the city centre, surrounding neighbourhoods, and beyond.

Join guests from government, business, charitable, and local community organisations from across Belfast to share your views.
