The Cove

Autumn 2012 Tour of 'The Cove'

A new dance theatre piece inspired by the landscape that surrounds us, about scaling soaring crags with sea below, feeling the rocks with fingertips, smelling and tasting the air. The effort...the challenge...the pleasure...the fear and mortality. Audiences will be seated in the round and drawn into the dancers' memories of the natural, wild environment.

Choreographed by Echo Echo Artistic Director Steve Batts with stage design by acclaimed Belfast based artist and climber Dan Shipsides, The Cove will follow on from 2011 project Vertical. Nature. Base. Six dancers will perform their embodied memories of climbing and landscape to a commissioned music score by Christopher Norby. Costume design by Helen Quigley.

This project is funded by the Connections Challenge Fund, part of Legacy Trust UK and managed by the Arts Council of Northern Ireland.
