

Peace Summit

2023

The Unfinished Business of Peace and Reconciliation

Date: Friday 3rd March 2023

Location: Ulster University Derry~Londonderry Campus, MD Building, Great Hall

Agenda

- 9.15am Registration
- 10am Welcome - Gerard Deane, Director of the Holywell Trust - Conference Chair
- 10.05am Ulster University Welcome – Professor Cathy Gormley-Heenan, University Provost
- 10.10am Opening Remarks - Tim Attwood, Secretary of the John and Pat Hume Foundation
- 10.20am Panel focussing on the Past, the Present and the Future
- Professor Duncan Morrow, Ulster University Director of Community Engagement - Panel Chair
 - Dawn Purvis, Vice-Chair of the John & Pat Hume Foundation
 - Catherine Cooke, Foyle Women's Information Network
 - Rev Dr Livingstone Thompson, Racial Equality Subgroup Chair
 - Cori Conlon and Jamie McAdoo, YouthAction NI
- 11.05am Honouring the investment made in the Peace Process
Paddy Harte, Chair of the International Fund for Ireland
- 11.15am Report Summary – Professor Brandon Hamber, Ulster University, The John Hume and Thomas P. O'Neill Chair in Peace
- 11.30am Workshop 1 - Themes from the Consultation Report - Elizabeth McArdle, Ulster University Course Director of Community Youth Work - https://padlet.com/UU_CYRD/finishthejob-clz7lv6ifjkhyyvm
- 12.45pm Lunch - MU Building

- 1.45pm Video piece by young people introduced by Jamie McAdoo, YouthAction NI
- 2pm Workshop 2 – Envisaging the Future - Elizabeth McArdle, Ulster University Course Director of Community Youth Work
https://padlet.com/UU_CYRD/finishthejob-clz7lv6ifjkhyvym
- 3.15pm Reviewing the day - Dympna McGlade, Community Dialogue
- 3.35pm Dr Colin Davidson, Chancellor of Ulster University, to close Conference
- 3.45pm Introduction to Mo Mowlam’s stepdaughter Henrietta Norton and launch of newly established Mo Mowlam Exhibition by Liam Conlon, Irish Labour in Britain and Anne Carr, Peace Activist.