

wonderland Partner Biographies

Helen Storey
 trained as a fashion designer working at Valentino and running her own label until 1995. She is a Professor at London College of Fashion and co-founder of the Helen Storey Foundation. In the last decade Helen has produced 4 ambitious and global art/science collaborations, unearthing new ideas for a better world. She lives in London.

Tony Ryan OBE
 is the Pro Vice-Chancellor for the Faculty of Science at the University of Sheffield where he was previously the ICI Professor of Physical Chemistry. He's written more than 200 scientific papers and a book on polymer processing. He gave the Royal Institution Christmas lectures in 2002 and is committed to promoting science as part of culture and highlighting its benefit to society. He lives in Sheffield.

Trish Belford is a textile designer and Senior Research Fellow with Interface in the University of Ulster. In 1986 she set up Belford Prints, printing for fashion designers. In 1996 she was awarded an Honorary Fellowship at the Royal College of Art. Currently her main projects are Wonderland Jewellery and Gift Concrete. In 2007 Gift Concrete, Trish's project with architect Ruth Morrow was awarded the integrated art award as part of the renovation of the Derry Playhouse. She lives in Belfast.

Wonderland pilots in Sheffield and is awarded funding from Arts Council England and Arts Council Northern Ireland for touring

19 Disappearing Dresses created in Gallery Space/London College of Fashion. First dress dissolved in London

Wonderland shown in Sheffield, seen by 3 million people